YachtAid Global Creates WhatsApp Covid-19 Superyacht Captain's Group

Group Provides Platform for Real Time Information During Crisis

(San Diego, Ca, April 6, 2020)- YachtAid Global, in cooperation with AYSS Superyacht Global Network, created a WhatsApp chat group called COVID-19 Superyachts to provide and exchange real time crisis, port and governmental restrictions information in response to the Covid-19 pandemic crisis. The group is comprised of captains from around the world and select agents at key global locations.

The purpose and function of the group is to enable members to post questions and/or facts about their area and to be a unifying resource for the group during the extremely challenging times presented by the pandemic. It is to be noted that the shared information is at time of date stamp and subject to rapid change as well as a reminder to always contact a local agent.

The intention of organizers is for the group to remain active for the duration of the COVID-19 pandemic crisis and then be in place for future unifying events and natural disasters. Data from the group is extracted by AYSS and posted at: <https://www.covid19superyachts.com/>

For more info on group specifics contact group administrator Captain Mark Drewelow at info@yachtaidglobal.org
